EAGLE ROCK NEWS

CELEBRATE THE OPENING OF THE CARNEGIE LIBRARY— OTHER NEWS NOTES

Last week Wednesday evening was the grand opening of our new Carnegie library. Indeed by the size of the crowd present most everybody from Eagle Rock was there and manifested much interest in inspecting the building throughout as well as the numerous books. Almost 400 books were donated by citizens and friends that evening and several hundred new ones were added to this number by the county library. The program was short and informal and was begun by W. L. Miller, who gave an interesting talk on the progress of the library. Next Mr. Edwards, president of the library board, spoke on various matters of interest pertaining to the building, its construction, kind of material, etc., and lastly of the educational possibilities a well stocked library such as this is, possesses, and how it will influence the young as well as the old. Two songs were sung by the public school glee club which consisted of seventh and eighth grade pupils under direction of the music teacher, Miss Bernice Miller. Mrs. Bessie Thew Miller read a fine essay on "Books" written by herself, and closed the program with a fairy tale, "The Rain Family" also written by her. The new library building is a very attractive structure, being mission style with red tile roof and cream tinted exterior. The interior is very highly polished and is light in color. The retaining walls, walks and steps were put in by A. A. House. The contractor for the building was T. H. Addison and the architect was W. Kleinpell. It commands an elegant view of the valley from its fine location on Rowland avenue and Colorado boulevard. Eagle Rock City should be proud of this magnificent $10,000 property.

Last week Saturday Mrs. George Kingdon of Fairmont avenue held a farewell party at her home in honor of her mother, Mrs. Potter, who left this week for an extended visit to her old home in Illinois. The guests were relatives from Los Angeles, Long Beach, Glendale and Eagle Rock.

Mr. E. Dickenson of Eagle and Central avenues is enjoying an extended visit at his old home in Michigan.

Miss Lenora Johnston of North Central avenue gave a musical recital for her pupils Monday of last week and the mothers of the children were present. Miss Johnston presented each of her pupils with a piece of sheet music.

Friends were indeed grieved to learn of the death of Mr. Turner, a former resident of this city, at his late home in Glendale. Mrs. Turner has the sympathy of all her friends here during her bereavement.

Services were held in the new Presbyterian bungalow church for the first time Easter Sunday and a large number were present at both morning and evening services. Communion was conducted by Dr. W. Young who supplied for the morning and several new members were taken in. Miss Johnston sang a solo and the choir sang an anthem. The new piano purchased by the Women's Guild and the new chairs also were greatly enjoyed.

The Ladies Aid of the M. E. church met at the home of Mrs. W. A. Vince on East Scamere Thursday afternoon, April 8th.

A number of Miss Dorothy Beath's friends were pleasantly entertained at her home on Ridgeway avenue last week Saturday evening. "500" was played until late and delicious refreshments were served.

The schools and college have opened again after a week's Easter vacation.

Miss Ada Carr of Grand View avenue is having a fine sleeping porch erected at the rear of her bungalow.

"Dreamland," the new open air picture show, at the rear of the bake shop, which is conducted by James West, opened Friday evening and pleased a large crowd of both young and old people.

Easter was pleasantly observed at the Methodist church Sunday morning. An excellent program was given by the Sunday school children under special direction of the teachers of each class and the choir rendered a beautiful Easter anthem. In the evening were the regular preaching services and another Easter anthem by the choir.

Good Friday was observed at the Episcopal church by divine service at 3 o'clock in the afternoon.

IMPORTANT REALTY TRANSACTIONS—CLUB NOTES AND PERSONALS

Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Hough have sold their handsome new residence, corner of Central avenue and Tenth street, to the Misses Baldwin, who with their mother, brother and sister, have been residing on Oak Drive. The Misses Baldwin are instructors in the Los Angeles polytechnic high school. Mr. and Mrs. Hough have also sold their bungalow on Tenth St. to Mr. and Mrs. C. B. Mantell of Tropic.

Though having disposed of these two residences, still Mr. and Mrs. Hough are loath to leave Tropic, where they have resided for the past ten years or more, and have leased Mrs. Ella Richardson's residence on Laurel street, where they will reside until they decide just where they wish to locate permanently in Tropic. Mrs. Richardson and her family have but recently taken possession of the Thornton property on Riverdale Drive, which Mrs. Richardson recently purchased from Col. and Mrs. Tom Thornton.

Mrs. Charles A. Barker, president of the Tropic Thursday Afternoon club, has appointed as nominating committee Mrs. Edward M. Lynch, Mrs. C. H. Woolsey, Mrs. John A. Logan, Mrs. W. C. Anderson and Mrs. C. M. Good.

As an Easter offering, the ladies of N. P. Banks Women's Relief Corps of Tropic presented five boxes of choice jellies, jams, preserves and canned fruits to the Florence Crittenton Home of Los Angeles. This large and choice collection of fruits had been carefully prepared by the ladies of the corps, as is the annual custom of these benevolent women, and this year, the same as last, was given the Florence Crittenton Home. Previous years the fruits were sent to the Los Angeles Maternity Home and the Day Nurseries.

Mrs. Glen Craig and daughter, Mary Pauline, of Saugus, are the house guests of Mrs. Craig's parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Hough.

Charles Conrad of Newhall has been enjoying a few days' visit as the guest of his brother, Dr. A. C. Conrad of Glendale avenue.

ARRESTED FOR CUTTING STREET

W. J. Couvery of Los Angeles, an auto truck contractor, was arrested Tuesday for hauling a heavy load of rock up Colorado boulevard. The load was going to Eagle Rock and the heavy truck was running on the rim without tires. A deep cut was made the full length of the street. Couvery was fined $25 by Judge Whomes this morning.

The police department has ordered all heavy trucks to stay off of Colorado boulevard and mean to see that the law is enforced.

MRS. MABRY HOSTESS

The Tropic Bridge Luncheon club met Tuesday at the home of Mrs. William C. Mabry, 115 East Acacia street. The table decorations of Lady Banksia roses and bridal wreath were very pretty and the delightful luncheon was enjoyed by all. Herbert Smith were special guests of the club, and members present were Mrs. William Harvey, Jr., Mrs. Charles Barker, Mrs. Harry Coleman, Mrs. Stuart M. ### ST. MARK'S CHURCH

The mission being held this week in the church is being well attended and is growing in interest. Many of Dean McCormack's friends living in Glendale were glad to see him here and he gave them something Tuesday night well worth listening to.

Tonight Rev. Leslie E. Learned, D. D., of All Saints church, Pasadena, will preach at 8 o'clock. Be sure and hear him. Everybody welcome. Seats free.

TO VISIT SAN DIEGO

THE IOWA-ILLINOIS SAN DIEGO EXPOSITION EXCURSION APRIL 21-22-23

To the Iowa and Illinois people of Southern California, greeting!
The Iowa and Illinois societies of San Diego join with the Panama-California exposition officials in extending to all former residents of Illinois and Iowa, now in California, a very hearty and cordial invitation to meet in San Diego at the exposition grounds April 21st, 22nd and 23rd for a jolly social reunion and a visit to the exposition.

We want all of you who can, to come down Wednesday, April 21st, and remain as long as you can. On Thursday, April 22nd, there will be a special Iowa picnic reunion with basket dinner in the "pepper grove" on the exposition grounds. On Friday, April 23rd, there will be a similar reunion for the Illinois people. As there are thousands here who have lived in both of these states, it has seemed appropriate to have these days together so that many can take part in both reunions. There will be programs following the picnic dinners with songs and addresses. Old friends will have a chance to meet again and to enjoy the reunion, as well as the splendid exposition and the wonderfully beautiful grounds. It does not seem necessary to speak in detail of the great exposition, as you all know about it and will see it for yourselves, but we assure you it is worth seeing. Trusting that we may greet thousands of you on these dates we are, your old-time friends and neighbors from Illinois and Iowa now officers and members of the Iowa and Illinois associations of San Diego.

The officers of the Iowa and Illinois associations of Southern California, headquarters in Los Angeles, most strongly urge all Iowans and Illinoisans who can possibly plan to do so, to accept this invitation from our old-time friends and to meet on these dates in Exposition park, San Diego. Mr. C. H. Parsons, secretary of the Iowa association, who is both a "Sucker" and a "Hawkeye," has just returned from the exposition and heartily urges all who can to go and assures them it is worth seeing. The lowest possible rates will be secured by both railroad and steamer, but if you have an auto you can go that way and be independent. The headquarters at San Diego will be at the Hotel St. James, where they have arrangements to care for 1000 people daily by their reservation bureau. Make any appointments there that you desire to meet your friends. Any further information may be had from Mr. H. Parsons at the Federation of State Societies building, 953 West Seventh street, Los Angeles. Phone 52366, or at the Santa Fe offices anywhere. Once more we urge you to go and make these great reunion days.

IN MEMORIAM

MRS. LAURA LAVINA HARRISON IS CALLED TO THE GREAT BEYOND

Mrs. Laura Lavina Harrison passed away quietly at her home, 1554 Myrtle street, at 9:30 o'clock Monday evening, April 5th, 1915, with her husband and children around her bedside. She had been an invalid for years, living in the little home built by her daughter, Mrs. Coral Harrison Sloan, watched over and cared for by her loving children. The end came suddenly from heart failure Monday evening, though she had been feeling as well as usual.

Mrs. Harrison leaves her husband, W. H. Harrison; a son, George Meldo Harrison of 1557 Myrtle street; a daughter, Mrs. Coral Harrison Sloan of 1550 Myrtle street, and another daughter, Mrs. Mellie Penniman of Tropic.

She was born in Madison, Wis., in 1840, being seventy-five years old at the time of her death. She came to California forty years ago and was a charter member of the Church of the Nazarene of Los Angeles, from which church funeral services were held at 2:30 today. Dr. P. S. Bresee, who had been Mrs. Harrison's pastor since she was a girl, led the burial service, assisted by the other pastors of the church. Interment was in Evergreen cemetery.

Mrs. Harrison had always been an active Christian woman and always alive to good works. She was a member of the Glendale W. C. T. U. and in the few times she was able to attend the meetings she endeavored herself to all the members. She will be missed by her hosts of friends in Glendale and Los Angeles.

Mr. and Mrs. H. L. Howe of 1546 Burchett street, with their house guest, Mrs. E. O. Galloway, were Los Angeles visitors Tuesday evening, where they enjoyed seeing "The Clansman" at Clune's auditorium.

Mr. and Mrs. Lester Schofield and daughter, Miss Thais, also Mrs. Schofield's mother, Mrs. Stewart of East Twenty-eighth street, Los Angeles, were week-end guests of Mr. Schofield's mother, Mrs. Frank Townsend of North Louise street.

North Glendale residents are proud of fifteen-year-old Bennie Marsh of 1625 Ruth street, who is a hustler. By his own efforts he has forged his way to the front in an auto contest being conducted by a Los Angeles paper, and is at the head of the list in this district. Bennie is the winner of a cycle car and has gone to Culver City today to claim his prize.

Miss Mary Brown of 1620 Stocker street is entertaining as her house guest Mrs. L. R. Williams of Chicago, who has been her partner in tennis tournaments where they have won national prominence for the past two or more years. They became friends when they began sociological work together at Hull House, Chicago, where Miss Brown graduated. She has recently been made superintendent of the children's department of the Humane society of Los Angeles and has decided to give up tennis as a profession and devote her time exclusively to sociological work. Miss Brown and Mrs. Williams will play at the Mt. Washington tournament on Saturday, the proceeds to go for charitable work. Miss Brown is hoping to persuade her guest to remain here permanently and engage in some charitable work.

P.T.A. ENTERTAINMENT

INTERMEDIATE P. T. A. PLANNING INTERESTING MEETING FOR FRIDAY

One of the most interesting meetings of the year will be that of the Intermediate Parent-Teacher association to be held Friday, April 9th, at 3:15 p. m. sharp at the Intermediate school.

The program will consist entirely of musical numbers and readings, some of the best talent in Southern California having consented to appear. The following program will be given:

Vocal solo, Miss Helen Beatrice Cooper of the Cooper School of Music, accompanied by Mrs. De Gaston of Tropic.

Miss Cooper is one of the most popular vocalists in the valley and is generally in demand for concert work in the large cities. She has always been generous with her talent when called upon by the Parent-Teacher associations to assist in their entertainments.

Whistling solo, Miss Florence Froley, a pupil of Miss Jessie Stafford of the Woodward School of Artistic Whistling, Los Angeles, accompanied by her mother, Mrs. Froley. Miss Froley is much in demand as an entertainer in Los Angeles.

Southern dialect readings, Miss Bertha Jackson, a prominent young reader who has recently come from Kentucky to locate in Glendale. Miss Jackson has read for a number of the more important entertainments held in Glendale recently, her readings being one of the features of the last meeting of the Tropic Thursday Afternoon club. Many who have heard Miss Jackson assert that she is one of the best readers of Southern dialect in California today.

Vocal solo, Miss Florence Mead, with flute obligato by Mr. Wm. H. Mead, piano accompaniment by Mrs. John S. Barrows. Miss Mead is the talented young vocalist who so charmed the audience at the high school auditorium Monday night when Dr. McLaren gave his entertainment on Robert Burns.

The president, Dr. Russell, has called a meeting of the executive board for 2 o'clock Friday, at which important business will be considered.

Refreshments will be served by the senior class girls, under the supervision of Miss Lulu Woodridge, director of domestic science. Mrs. Greely Kolts, assisted by her committee, will serve punch.

Through the discussion relative to expensive graduating frocks, held by the association at its last meeting, the girls of the present class (numbering over ninety-five students) have established a record in the country for eighth grade students. They have voted to graduate attired in white poplin middy suits, with green ties and white accessories.

The Friday entertainment will be open to the public and a large attendance is anticipated.

TO DISLodge SETTERS

"Wednesday does not come around soon enough," was the remark of a prayer meeting member of the First Baptist church. Bible study in the second chapter of first Corinthians with live testimonies will constitute the program of the Wednesday evening prayer and praise service of the local Baptist church. The gospel team will be in line for action and the disloyal "setter and dill pickle regiments" will be completely annihilated. All earnest Baptists will not fail to rally to the colors in these days of unprecedented opportunity. Let it not be forgotten that prosperity has its dangers as adversity has its lessons. Even if there is a crowd you will be missed. We cannot worship God by proxy. Might as well think of going to heaven by proxy. Loyalty to Christ and his church with firmness to stand for the right and heart and brain big enough to receive and love the truth will ever characterize the real New Testament Christian. Important announcements this evening.

PRISCILLA CLUB

The Priscilla club was entertained by Mrs. H. W. Yarrick of 1447 West Third street on Tuesday afternoon of this week and the usual delightful time was enjoyed by the club. The rooms were prettily decorated with flowers for the occasion and the table was especially attractive, with an elaborate centerpiece of flowers and ferns charmingly arranged. After luncheon, which was at one, the afternoon was spent in sewing and chatter. Mrs. Foss and her mother, Mrs. Peters, resigned for the summer, but will take their places again in the fall. The next meeting of the club will be with Miss Coral E. Griffith.

ORATORICAL CONTEST

WINNER IN INTER-CLASS CONTEST TO RECEIVE $20 GOLD PIECE AS A PRIZE

There will be an oratorical contest at the Glendale Union high school on Friday evening, April 16, at 8 o'clock, at which time the following contestants will take part:

James Purman Bennett, representing the senior class; subject, "The United States and Peace."

Carol Willisford, representing the junior class; subject, "Human Conservation."

Jeannette McLennon, representing the sophomore class; subject, "Child Labor."

Roberta Rosa, representing the freshman class; subject, "The Future of the Philippines."

The winner in this lively contest will be presented with a $20 gold piece by the student body and will also represent this school at the interurban oratorical contest, which is to be held about the 30th of this month and which Glendale hopes to have held here. Should Glendale be so fortunate as to be winner in the interurban contest, then her contestant will take part in the great Southern California contest later on.

Glendale has been so fortunate as to produce one representative who won the honors in the interurban contest and also in the Southern California contest. This was Harold H. Story, in 1912.

The oratorical contests were instituted in 1910 and following are the winners of each year:

In 1910, Hazel Everts of the class of 1912.

In 1911, Dwight W. Stephenson of the class of 1911.

In 1912, Harold H. Story of the class of 1912.

In 1913, Jennie Boring of the class of 1914.

In 1914, Alena McGee, class of 1914.

It has always been the custom to have the winner of the preceding year preside at the contest of the year following, and Miss McGee will be chairman of the contest on Friday evening. Purman Bennett, who represents the senior class this year, will also represent the high school at the peace contest to be held in Whittier on April 30th.

NEW CINEMATOGRAH

The following reels are to be thrown on the screen at the first showing of the new machine which the P. T. A. have just acquired:

Pickwick Papers—a John Bunny picture.
Wild Birds.
In a Submarine.
Through a Microscope.
The Coming of Columbus.
The Mysterious Package—with Andy as Hero.

There will be two performances at the high school at 7 and 8:30 Friday, April 9th. Entire proceeds are to go towards paying for the new machine. The machine is bought primarily for class-room use in teaching science, history, geography, literature, methods of manufacture, art, etc. It is necessary to conduct a series of performances for the public until the entire purchase price shall have been earned. With the generous patronage of persons interested in the development of the schools, it is hoped that the entire sum will soon be raised.

STAG BIRTHDAY DINNER

On Saturday evening Mrs. H. W. Yarrick of 1447 W. Third street, very delightfully surprised Mr. Yarrick with a stag dinner party in honor of his birthday. Decorations in the living room were of red carnations, and the center piece of the table was a mirror lake, surrounded by tiny fir trees and ferns, with an island of flowers and with tiny kewpies fishing on the banks. Place cards were small automobile sign posts bearing the name and a funny inscription. A delicious four course dinner was served at seven o'clock, covers being laid for Mr. Yarrick, Mr. Eugene Murman, Mr. E. V. Skiles, Mr. Blake Franklin and Mr. Canfield and Mr. Carpenter of Los Angeles.

At eight-thirty the ladies came in and games were played and a pleasant time enjoyed until ten-thirty. Then the big birthday cake was brought in, with its lighted candles, was cut by the host and served with ice cream. Altogether it was a delightful evening for all and especially for the honoree, who was completely surprised by the whole affair.

J. B. Walker, former proprietor of the Cosmopolitan magazine, proposes to found a home for superannuated journalists. He has 6000 acres available for the purpose, which ought to afford the old boys sufficient breathing space and a chance to caper.

DEFINES ADVERTISING

Clyde S. Thompson, who is president of the Thompson-Carroll company of Cleveland, Ohio, is credited with this terse definition of advertising: "Advertising is telling the people what you have that they want in such a way that they come to you for it."

Thompson goes further and explains that advertising often gives people what they need, but did not realize it until it was advertised. He says that aside from "paying" that advertising facilitates business and promotes the health and happiness of people. He points to the automobile as one of the best "examples" of what advertising can do.

EAGLE ROCK

The Misses Alice, Anna and Mayme Swan of West Sycamore spent Sunday with relatives at Pomona.

The Chamber of Commerce held its regular monthly meeting last Thursday evening with a large membership present.

The Easter exercises at the Congregational church consisted of a song by the primary class of the Sunday school, anthem by the choir, solo by Dr. Dirks, and the preaching service by Rev. Haresnap. In the evening Miss Thelma Stanton gave a violin solo, vocal solo by Mr. Fred Truman, solo by Miss Emma Herzog, and the cantata, "The Risen King."

The Presbyterian church is receiving the finishing touches this week, inside and out. It is a very neat church, being the bungalow style and is most conveniently arranged. There are now four church buildings in Eagle Rock, namely: The Church of the Good Shepherd (Congregational), First M. E., First Presbyterian and St. Barnabas' Episcopal. The latter three have been erected just recently. The Christian Scientists hold their services in Masonic hall.

The Parent-Teacher association met Wednesday afternoon at the school house and Miss Bennette of Los Angeles addressed them. She had with her a number of deaf and dumb pupils to demonstrate the way of educating such persons.

Henry Nash's home on Eagle avenue is nearly completed. He is doing the work himself during his "spare time," which recently has been rare.

Miss Olive Moe spent one day last week visiting relatives in Los Angeles.

Good Christians should never avenge injuries.—Cervantes.

Mr. Brown is principal of one of the large grade schools in Los Angeles, and is building this house as a permanent home for himself and family.

W. C. T. U. AND Y. P. B.

Last Friday afternoon, April 2nd, Mrs. P. A. C. Moore entertained a joint meeting of the Woman's Christian Temperance Union and the Young People's Branch in her pleasant home, 116 West Fifth street. A goodly number were present and an interesting and instructive program was conducted by the branch secretary, Mrs. Flora Lemon.

Letters of cordial and friendly greeting from the national W. C. T. U. officers to the young people were read and the president, Mrs. Smart, gave a short resume of the Y. P. B.'s history. She said, in part, that the mother organization realized at the beginning in 1874 that the children and youth were one of their greatest assets, and quoted Miss Willard as saying, "The children are the great army of the future; give them ration and ammunition and they will hold the fort when we are mustered out."

How truly we see this prophesy being fulfilled. The children of 40 years ago are the adults of today who have been voting the sixteen states "dry" one by one and will soon give us national constitutional prohibition.

The "Y." as it was formerly called, was at first for young ladies alone. The young men only held honorary membership, and was conducted by committees. In 1880 it was made a department under the very efficient leadership of Mrs. Frances J. Barnes, a very cultured lady from New York. Mrs. Barnes was a splendid leader for twenty years, greatly enthusing and inspiring the young women and making them to feel their responsibility to the cause of God and home and native land.

After Mrs. Barnes' resignation in 1900, Miss Clara Parrish, a just returned White Ribbon missionary from the Orient, was made national and world's secretary of the work, which had grown to be a branch with a dues-paying constituency. (Miss Parrish later became Mrs. Noah Wright and is now living in Glendale.) Space will not allow us to speak of the efficient and excellent work of Mrs. Clara Parrish Wright or of Mrs. Seaberry, who succeeded her. In 1909 at the national convention in Omaha, Iowa, the "Y." was changed to the Young People's Branch under Miss Rhena Mosher, admitting young men as equal active dues-paying and office-holding members. The success of the branch since then has been significant and interesting.

The states which have recently gone "dry" give much credit to the work of the young people in their campaigns. Mrs. Rose Hayer Schaner, who is now the national branch secretary, reports a large increase of money and members the past year. $9371.48 was raised and $585.17 contributed to campaign expenses. Gain in girls, 2091; boys, 1691; total, 3857. There are 800 branches in the United States and many in other lands. Glendale is to be congratulated in belonging to such a fine, brave comradeship.

The Southern California branch is under the direction of Mrs. Hattie Doughty of Los Angeles, who is working for 500 new members this year. When we consider how rapidly the young people grow up, marry, changing their homes and relation to public life, we feel that we may well say to them, "Excelsior."

The Glendale Y. P. B., with Mr. Will Richards president, holds regular meetings the first and third Tuesdays of each month with occasional socials, and will be pleased to welcome any of the young people of Glendale as members to help annihilate "the great destroyer" and bring about a "dry" California in 1916.

At this meeting the following were elected to the county convention: Delegates from Glendale to Los Angeles county Woman's Christian Temperance Union annual convention, to be held in Los Angeles April 21-22-23, in First Baptist church on Flower street, between Seventh and Eighth streets: Delegates—Ex-officers, Mrs. Ruby J. Smart, president; Mrs. Hattie E. Gaylord, organizer; Mesdames H. E. Loveless, Dovie Grist, Lucy Durham, Opal Greenwalt, A. Frank and Miss Mary Chester.

Alternates—Mesdames Cora Pettit, D. R. Dungan, J. E. Paul, May Knox, J. E. Colvin and J. A. Quackenbush. Y. P. B. delegates—Mrs. Flora Lemon, branch secretary, and Miss Vivian Engle, vice-president.

The next meeting of the W. C. T. U. will meet April 16 with Mrs. D. R. Dungan, 829 Lomita avenue, 2:30 p. m. The parliamentary contest for which the class have been preparing, will be held at that time.

RUBY J. SMART.

In the whole drama of human history there never before was so much tragedy crowded into a few brief months as within the period beginning last August.

Union High School
THURSDAY EVE, APRIL 8
ADMISSION 25c

Mrs. Mary Davis of Los Angeles is spending the week with Mr. R. L.
Herman and mother on West Second street.

Mrs. Louis Sherman of 1415 West
First street entertained over night Monday Miss Blanche Fowler, the talented reader who is to appear with the Robbinette club at their concert next Tuesday evening, April 13th, at the high school.

Mrs. M. P. Harrison was a luncheon guest Tuesday at the home of Mrs. Hollins of Tenth and Mariposa streets. Other guests were Mr. and Mrs. J. T. Weir of Duluth, Minn., who are uncle and aunt of Mrs. Hollins and old-time friends of Mrs. Harrison when they all lived in Iowa.

Captain Wells, the noted author, was a luncheon guest on Saturday at the home of Mrs. E. C. Frank of Eagle Rock road and later in the afternoon visited Mrs. Martha Morris and Mrs. Danford, returning to his home in Sawtelle after a very pleasant day among his Glendale friends.

Mrs. M. M. Everly and Miss Pauline Battin of San Diego are expected in Glendale Monday to visit Dr. and Mrs. H. V. Everly of 1414 West Broadway. They will motor up from San Diego. Mrs. H. V. Everly is expected home from the hospital on Saturday evening, bringing her fine baby with her.

Mr. Owen Emery of 117 South
Kenwood street has just returned from a fortnight's visit to San Francisco, where he visited his aunt, and the great exposition. Mr. Emery is delighted with the fair and says it is very wonderful. Though he spent ten days there, he did not see nearly all of the exhibits.

Mrs. F. A. Field and Miss Field of South Kenwood street spent the most of Easter week in San Diego. They pronounce the fairgrounds and buildings very beautiful, and some of the exhibits quite novel. Mrs. Field was greatly interested in the relics and photos found in the room devoted to San Diego's pioneers. Her father, G. W. B. McDonald, was an early resident of San Diego, establishing his business there in 1869.

HEARING POSTPONED

The hearing on the application of the Glendale and Montrose railway for increase in stock issue, which was to have been heard before Commissioner Loveland, of the California Railroad commission, in Los Angeles on the 9th, has been postponed to April 22nd.

THE Y. P. B.

The members of the Young People's Branch of the W. C. T. U. and their friends were entertained by Mrs.
P. A. C. Moore in her attractive home at 116 West Fifth street Tuesday evening. The first part of the evening was devoted to business. A constitution was adopted and plans made for an entertainment to be given the first Tuesday night in May. After the close of the business a social time was enjoyed with games and music, which consisted of a piano solo by Miss Winnifred Taylor, several numbers by Miss Marian Carmichael and singing by all the young people assembled. Home-made candy was served and enjoyed by all.

ENJOY CALIFORNIA

Mrs. Frederick Baker of 109 North Maryland had the pleasure of entertaining the first of this week, her brother, Mr. M. B. Hooker of Charlevoix, Mich. and friend, Mr. Henry Wood of the same place. These gentlemen recently came from their eastern homes where winter still lingers in the lap of spring, there being much ice in Lake Michigan, and to be suddenly transplanted in the midst of a Southern California Springtime was an experience that was also a revelation to these gentlemen who had never visited the Pacific slope before.

On Monday Mrs. Baker took her guests through the orange belt as far as Uplands and Ontario and in spite of the fact that Mr. Hooker stopped in Azusa long enough to pick a box of oranges and start them on their way toward Michigan, the party traversed 102 miles of California's matchless boulevards that day.

On Tuesday they motored to Long Beach and thence up the coast to Santa Monica getting a view of the various beach resorts and many views of the boundless and beautiful Pacific, covering 112 miles on their journey.

Mr. Hooker and Mr. Wood left last night for San Diego where they will view the wonders of the exposition.

TALENTED SINGERS COMING

The Robbinette club has obtained some fine talent to assist them in their concert to be given on the evening of April 13 in the high school auditorium. Through their director, Madam Norma Rockhold Robbins, the club has secured the services of Miss Wanda Robertson, young soprano of the National Grand Opera company, also Miss Earline Lancaster, a contralto of extraordinary ability.
These two young women will present the Bjelmu River cycle in costume, with scenery and dramatic action.
Miss Lancaster filling the role of Soubahna, the oriental lover. This number was received with great enthusiasm by University of Southern California students and Gamut club audiences. Both of these young women are former pupils of Mrs. Robbins.

"A Timely Talk"

The great virtue of cheerin the face of adversity.

I am always trying to smile in fighting unprin-ciple foreign solicitors who misrepresent their goods.
You seldom see those men again, some other fellow de-
